Simone Mayor's works are sculptures made of bronze, with particular attention given to the quality of the sheen, and sculptures made of terracotta, baked at a very high temperature and then subtly enameled.

Simone Mayor deals mainly with characters, such as angels, pilgrims, social outcasts, women, nuns, etc. She is currently working on a set of portraits of elderly people.

Her works have been shown in various places, among which some churches: in Geneva, in Lausanne (cathedral), or in Strasbourg (St Thomas).
